Ephesians 6:10-19

Most of us know that it is a good practice to put on God's armor each day. We can do this by verbal proclamation and even by using physical gestures over our person. While we know that it is not like waving a magic wand and getting mystic results, but is instead a verbal and sometimes a physical expression of our faith in the power of God's word. We all expressed our faith at some point since being saved because "with the heart man believes, resulting in righteousness and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation." (Romans 10:10)

Below are some added scriptures to this verbal putting on the armor of God, that for myself, add deeper understanding of the truths or reality of the power of the armor that God has provided for us. There are many other scriptures that one can use. Whichever you may choose, it's best to commit them to memory so that they will be readily available.

"My loins are gird about with truth - because the Spirit of Truth abides within me, I know the truth and the truth has set me free." (John 14:17; John 8:32)

"I have on the breastplate of righteousness because God made Him who knew no sin to be sin on my behalf, so that I might become the righteousness God in Him. By His doing I am in Christ Jesus, who became to me wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption." (2 Cor. 5:21; 1Cor. 1:30).

"My feet are shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. Therefore I have beautiful feet because I bring good news of good things, preaching the gospel to all creation, being ready in season and out of season." (Rom. 10:15; Mark 16:15; 2 Timothy 4:2)

"Above all, I take the shield of faith, with which I am able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one, being kept by the power of God through faith, I resist my adversary, the devil, standing firm in the faith, submitting myself to God, the devil must flee, knowing that my faith is the victory that overcomes the world." (1 Peter 1:5; 1 Peter 5:9; James 4:7; 1 John 5:4)

"I take the helmet of salvation which protects the mind of Christ given me, knowing that by grace I have been saved through faith, that the Spirit bears witness with my spirit that I am a child of God (1 Corinthians 2:16; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 8:16)

“And I take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God and is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do. (Hebrews 4:12,13)

With all the powerful spiritual weapons God has granted us, we cannot leave out the most important of them all. It is prayer. “With all manner of prayer and petition pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be on the alert with all perseverance and petition for all the saints, and pray on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the m y s t e r y o f t h e gospel.” (Ephesians 6: 18, 19)

Without prayer, spiritual weapons are like having an Abrams Tank without fuel!

Prayer is what Satan fights the hardest to keep us from doing. Therefore we must be determined to press into the kingdom by force which is through prayer. I’m sure you all know this but being reminded is always good.

What's Going On Out There?

At the Columbus bar district Todd, Joseph and I of presented the gospel through one on one and open air preaching. While most of the partiers were doing their partying, one homeless man was healed, another was sobered up and a third was sobered up and was born again. All three heard the gospel as well as hundreds of partiers.

Below from top, left to right: (1) Charles approached us asking for money because he said his car was stolen. Told him we had no way of knowing that was true but said we would give him a few dollars because we are Christians and want him to know we care. He was pretty drunk but after a while seemed to sober up and after hearing the gospel and soon return of Jesus. He wanted to pray to receive Christ. He felt the power of the Holy Spirit and seemed to be changed into a different man, raising his hands run the air and jumping up and down. He kept thanking us and hugged us several times. (2) Todd holding one of the signs that has a great nugget of truth that people read while off guard. (3 and 4) Bill, a homeless man was bitten by a Brown Recluse spider. He let us pray for God to heal him and as soon as we prayed, infection began oozing out. No one was touching him. He didn't receive there Lord but he knew that God did it. (5). Joseph and Charles. Charles' countenance totally changed. (6). Not pictured, Daniel also homeless, was so drunk that he could hardly talk and was hard understand, Prayed for him and he asked what happened. We told him that God touched him., He was totally sober but didn't want to repent.

Please pray for many souls to have true repentance at the upcoming events.

Thank You All For Reading, Praying and Giving!
